Financial Inclusion – Ring-fenced monies – Funding approved – Declarations of interest.

1 With reference to the minutes of 17th November 2022 (Print 4, page 447) approving a contribution of grant awards of £2,182,723 for 2023/24 to Glasgow Advice and Information Network (GAIN) organisations, Councillor Bell, City Treasurer and City Convener for Financial Inclusion, presented a report regarding a proposed continuation of grant awards for 2024/25 to GAIN organisations, advising

(1) that as part of the review of Financial Inclusion Services, the share of funding previously allocated to GAIN organisations from the Glasgow Community Fund (GCF) for financial inclusion and legal support had been ring-fenced and had been removed entirely from the GCF budget and administered separately;

(2) that by ring-fencing funds for financial inclusion support to GAIN organisations, £6,548,169 of funding would be available to deliver a financial inclusion programme over 3 years from 1st April 2023 until 31st March 2026;

(3) that Officers from the Council's Financial Inclusion and Transformational Team had been working with GAIN organisations on a new approach to funding and as part of this, a representative from GAIN had been seconded into the Council's Child Poverty Pathfinder Multi-Disciplinary Team;

(4) that it was proposed that the current GCF awards to GAIN organisations be continued for another year from 1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025, with the option to extend if required, as detailed in the report; and

(5) that the continued funding awards to GAIN organisations from 1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025 would be subject to the Council being satisfied that all applicable Standard Conditions of Funding in 2023/24 had been adhered to and the initial grant payment would be subject to the submission of a satisfactory Funding Proposal Form including financial plans, programme outcomes and a Funding Acceptance Form.

After consideration, the committee

(a) noted the report; and

(b) approved the continuation of grant awards to Glasgow Advice and Information Network organisations totalling £2,182,723 from 1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025.

In terms of Standing Order No 27, Councillors Kelly and McTaggart declared an interest in this item of business and took no part in the discussion or decision thereon.

Glasgow Life Museums Collections Development Policy 2024-29 approved.

2 With reference to the minutes of the Wellbeing, Equalities, Communities, Culture and Engagement City Policy Committee of 18th January 2024 (page 60 hereof) when it had been agreed to recommend to this committee approval of the Glasgow Life Museums Collections Development Policy 2024-29, Bailie Christie, City Convener for Culture, Sport and International Relations, presented a report regarding the policy, advising

(1) that Glasgow Life, managed services for the Council under the terms of a series of service level agreements, that included the running of the city's museums;

(2) that the museum collections were owned by the Council who were also the governing body for the management and use of the collections with the governance and management arrangements being set out in a Collections Agreement which had been entered into between the Council and Glasgow Life on 30th March 2007;

(3) of the obligations that Glasgow Life had under the Collections Agreement in order to maintain Accredited Museum status, a UK Government museums sector standard that required both the governing body and museum to meet certain standards and to provide ongoing reassurance that the required standard was being met, with applications to renew accredited status made every 5 years;

(4) that the application renewal for the Burrell Collection was due for submission in late January 2024, with the city's other museums due for renewal in 2025;

(5) that the Council as the governing body was required to review and approve the proposed Collections Development Policy 2024-29, as detailed in Appendix 1 of the report, which included a delegated scheme for 8 core collections transactions and the reporting structures for necessary escalations between Glasgow Life and the Council;

(6) of an Accreditation Scheme that advocated the Museum Association's Code of Ethics and in approving the Collections Development Policy there was acknowledgement that Glasgow Life would continue to follow this Code of Ethics, as detailed in Appendix 2 of the report;

(7) of the ongoing development of the Collections Development Policy that defined the scope of collection and areas for future collecting; and

(8) that the Collections Development Policy was informed by, and in part delivered through, the Collections Documentation and Plan and the Collection Care and Conservation Policy which outlined the processes and activities in relation to collection documentation, collection care and conservation and provided detailed information and guides for museum staff.

After consideration, the committee

(a) approved

(i) the Glasgow Life Museums Collections Development Policy 2024-29;

(ii) the principles and process for a review of collecting priorities; and

(iii) the means of escalation required for certain Loans-Out; and

(b) noted

(i) where decisions lay in relation to core collection transactions; and

(ii) that the Collections Documentation Policy and Plan and the Collection Care and Conservation Policy would be drafted and agreed by the Head of Museums and Collections, Glasgow Life.

Statutory review of UK Parliamentary Constituencies noted - Polling Scheme for UK Parliamentary Elections approved.

3 There was submitted a report by the Chief Executive regarding a statutory review of UK Parliamentary Constituencies undertaken by the Boundary Commission for Scotland and of a review being undertaken of the Polling Scheme for Glasgow, advising that

(1) in January 2021, the Boundary Commission for Scotland had commenced its 2023 Review of UK Parliamentary Constituencies and as a result of the review, Glasgow had lost part of Wards 4 and 13 which had been returned to Renfrewshire and West Dunbartonshire respectively;

(2) Glasgow now had 6 Parliamentary Constituencies, 1 less than previously and changes had been made to each of the constituencies either in name or in geographical composition or both, as detailed in the report;

(3) the Parliamentary Constituencies Order 2023 came into force on 29th November 2023 with the new constituencies coming into effect at the next General Election and that since December 2023, the Electoral Registration Office had published electoral registers to reflect the new boundaries;

(4) local authorities were required to review their polling districts and polling places for UK Parliamentary Constituencies at least once every 5 years and Glasgow had carried out a desktop review of polling places, with a full review including a public consultation taking place over the next few months to take account of the reduced number of constituencies and the availability of suitable polling places across the city; and

(5) it was proposed that an interim Polling Scheme, as detailed in an appendix to the report, be used if the UK Parliamentary General Election was called before the review of Glasgow's polling districts and polling places for UK Parliamentary Constituencies had been concluded.

After consideration, the committee

(a) noted

(i) the outcome of the statutory review of UK Parliamentary Constituencies by the Boundary Commission for Scotland; and

(ii) that a full review of the UK Parliamentary Polling Scheme was being undertaken; and

(b) approved the Polling Scheme for a UK Parliamentary Election should this be required prior to the completion of the review.
